

Margaret's meditations

publié le 22/05/2021

Hello !

Margaret visited me the other day and spent the night over at my place. In the morning, she woke up at 7.30 am and ate with her hen friend. She chatted with her until 12 o'clock about what they thought about life in general.

At 1 pm, Margaret paid a visit to the sheep. She told them the story of the Three Little Sheep and that of The Sheep And The Fox.

Then, at 3 pm, she said goodbye because she needed some peace and quiet, and so she had a walk on the path next to my house.

At 3.30 pm, as Margaret was still walking on the path looking for a quiet place, she suddenly realized she had forgotten the location of my house. But it didn't bother her for a long time because she found a gorgeous place from where she could watch a magnificent sunset. Isn't life beautiful ?
