

NO MORE BULLYING FOR PETER

Everyday, seating at his desk,
Peter got bullied at school.
One day, Peter was upset,
He was again being laughed at,
Near the swimming pool.

I looked at him !
I wanted to help him,
I felt he was hopeless
And I shared his loneliness.

Another day, another story:
Peter was alone in the playground,
I saw him lonely and unhappy
And I watched him, I felt so sad inside .

And as I then witnessed it ,
I came to realise this,regretfully:
Being bullied was the price of his oversized body!
Physical violence is not acceptable :
Together, stronger, we can stop it !
