Bully Poem

They were trendy, I was brainy,
They were beautiful, I was shy
I was very often bullied
But I continued to lie.

I was not confident ,
I was feeling depressed ,
They said I was different .
I was feeling abandoned ...

They were more popular than me ,
I was bullied by them ,
They were always picking on me ,
I was beaten by them !

I should talk with them
I had to figure something out
I'd better tell someone about it
I tried to be friends with them
But they didn't want it ...
