

Finland

Finland is a member of the European Union, it's in the north, next to Sweden. Finland joined Europe in 1995, there are about 5 millions inhabitants.

The capital city is Helsinki. The Finnish speak Finnish and Swedish, they are Finnish. They pay with Euros. One of the famous monuments is the Olavinlinna, a castle in the north-east of Finland.

The culinary speciality is fish (salmon) and reindeer's meat. One famous Finnish person is Jean Sibelius, a composer of classical music, he composed operas: Kullervo, Finlandia, Kuolema, Tapiola.

