When we arrived, the first question of the host family was : " have you got a present for me ?" Dylan and Guillaume and I didn't have any present in our case. I've never felt so embarrassed. Fortunately Milad had a French cake for her, so he decided to give it to the lady and she was very happy. What an impolite person !

After this first contact, we went to eat in the kitchen with the lady and her husband during the meal she asked : "What do you want to drink ?", Water or orange juice ? Everybody answered orange juice. Then Milad wasn't very happy because he didn't like this drink but he never dared to ask another drink so he never drank at meals.
