

My compass

I'm a stranger.
This, is not my world.
I'm lost in this landscape.
There are people, but I'm alone.
France, I'm taking you with me.
I represent France.
But where am I ?
To be understood, I must speak English.
English is the international language,
it can save me.
My future is in its hands.
But why am I here ?
Because they need me.
They need me to communicate.
I have to help them.
What for ?
For life, in this world.
I have to fight, for them.
I have to learn,
For them, for me.
