

Simple things, nice things

Hi !

A few weeks ago, Margaret spent a day at my place. First she met my cat, then I showed her around the house and the garden.

We didn't do many things, but Margaret was there with me as I was doing my homework. Afterwards, we had salad, potatoes and turkey for dinner. She seemed to like it..

In the evening, we played video games. Margaret is a champion. She is so used to playing at different pupils' places !

Then we watched a movie, and two hours later we went to bed.

The next morning, we had breakfast. I think Margaret doesn't like mornings, she wasn't in a good mood. We got ready for school and left home. I had to give Margaret back. I was a bit sad because I loved being with her !
