

Tim's winter holidays

publié le 10/03/2020

Hi there !

I spent the last holidays with Maël. During the first week, we stayed at his grandparents', walking in the fields and playing video games.

The second week was quite different, as he took me to the Pyrenees ! We went to La Mongie ski resort. I had never seen so much snow ! It was magnificent. We made a huge snowman and we also went sledging. I had to be very agile to be able to go down the mountain ! I loved it !

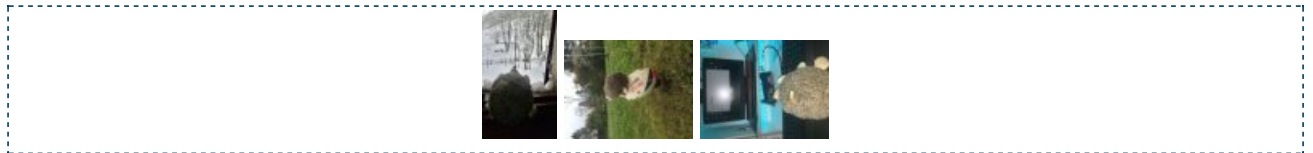

We also skied, but two days only because the weather was really bad the rest of the time.

When we came back to Maël's home, we played rugby and video games, as it had been very difficult to spend an entire week without playing !

See you soon for new adventures !

Maël
