

Why audiences love villains in movies ?

In almost all movies there are often villains who are also called anti-heroes.

The public love villains because they are instuious, they have originals costumes and makeup like Joker in Batman, Thanos in Avengers, Hela in Thor Ragnarock...they often do forbidden things.

But we also like heroes because we can identify with them.

Match the villains with here movies:

The box :

- forbidden : interdit
- instuious : astucieux
- almost : presque
- often : souvent
