

« What they couldn't take from us »

« The best friend for spending time is a book »

Abstract :

Lina is a young Lithuanian very gifted in drawing, she is going to enter an art school. But one night in June 1941, Soviet guards come to her house. She is deported to Siberia with her mother and her little brother, Jonas.

I love this book because it explains the violence of the Second world war and it is an emotional book. It is a novel written by Ruta Sepetys.

It was published on 22nd March 2011. Ruta Sepetys wrote many other war books. For example:

- The salt of our tears (2nd February 2016)
- Big easy (12th February 2013)
- Hotel castellana (1st October 2019)

Read this great book at the school library !

The box :

- gifted : doué
- come : venir
- war : guerre
- novel : roman
- abstract : résumé

What's the right answers. There may be multiple responses.

| | | | |
|-------------------------------------|------------------|-----------------|-----------|
| What's the name of the young girl ? | Ann | Lina | Berthe |
| Where are they deported ? | Siberia | China | America |
| When ? | June 1941 | January 1923 | July 1898 |
| By who ? | Soviet guards | policemen | military |