

A new law in Wales

This country, in the south-west of Great Britain, decided to forbid all sort of violence to young children. Since Monday, slaps and jolts have been considered like an assault by the Welsh law, which is already the case in Scotland.(read more on p.5)

Drink Blue bulle not to feel blue !

Journalists :
 Editor : Leelou R 4C
 Editor : Nathan D 4D
 Illustrator : Othilie B 3E
 Chief editor : Chloé D 3E
 Model maker : Thaïs J 3E
 Publication director : Mr Compin

Crash of flight MU5735 : the emergency services are still looking for the missing people

Contents :
 Education p.5
 Actuality p.8,17,20,24
 Politics p.9
 Sport p.13

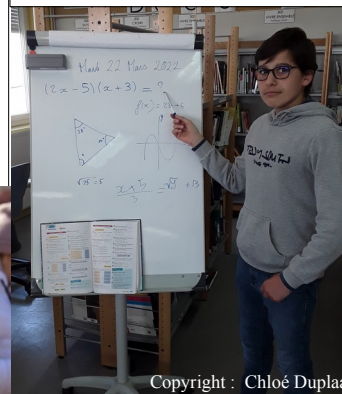

French presidential elections : the gaps are narrowing

While the ballot is approaching, the last survey published by Elabe this Tuesday points out the slight decline in voting intentions in favor of the outgoing President Emmanuel Macron (27,5 %) who remains ahead. Marine Le Pen (20%) is increasing in the polls, like Jean-Luc Mélenchon (15%). (read more on p.9)

On Monday, March 21st 2022, the Boeing-737 with 132 people on board, crashed in the mountains in Wuzhou in the south-west of China. The rain and the mud make the research of the missing people difficult. The emergency services declare that the probability to find survivors is low. (read more on p.8).

The price of fuel in France

For the first time this year, the fuel price has decreased at

THE BLUE TIDE

After the victory of Les bleus against England last Saturday (25-13), the French rugby team has won the 10th Grand Slam of their history. Les bleus had not won this tournament for twelve years (read more p.13)

Zelensky VS Poutine

Ukrainian President Volodymyr Zelensky announced to be favourable to the opening of direct negotiations with his Russian counterpart, Vladimir Poutine, including on the fate of Crimea and Donbass. On the other hand, he wants safety guarantees and warns that Ukraine will not give up. (read more on p.17)

Are Maths back ?

Next September, pupils of Year 12 in High School in France, may have an extra one hour and a half or 2 hours of Mathematics a week. The Education Minister received a report from nine experts which goes this way. (read more on p.20) last. Last week, it went under 2€ per liter after about 3 months of increase. (read more on p.24)