

HOT DUCK

The war in Ukraine : negotiation, a way out ?

Since the war in Ukraine burst out, some conflicts have opposed the Russian and the Ukrainian presidents but on the 22nd of March in 2022, president Volodymyr Zelensky announced that he could do anything for peace. The Ukrainian president would like to negotiate with his counterpart Vladimir Poutine, including on Crimea and Donbass, to stop the war. He made it clear that his country would not surrender, whatever happens. P.4/5

The decrease of the fuel.

According to the official numbers published on Monday this is the first time, since the beginning of the year, that the price of the road fuel has lowered and today the fuel is under two euros. P.6/7

Violence is over !

Since Monday, Wales has legally forbidden violence to children as already done in Scotland. Formerly, slapping or shaking a child was allowed as a reasonable punishment. Nowadays, children in England and Northern Ireland still suffer these punishments. P.12/13

Charlie's little Chocolate factory

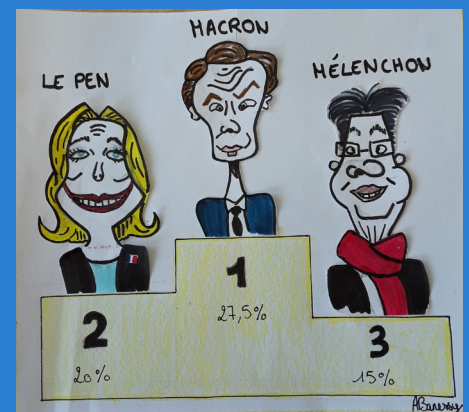

Our chocolate makes you speechless !

Editorial

Volodymyr Zelensky is a president who is devoted to his country and who fights with his citizens in the cold, in the middle of rubbles and injured people, whereas Vladimir Poutine seems to hide away in his desk and throws Russia in a fratricidal war.

Presidential elections : Who to govern France?

According to a poll Elabe published this Tuesday, March 22nd, Emmanuel Macron the outgoing president would come to the first place at the presidential election (27,5%). He is opposed to Marine Le Pen and Jean-Luc Mélenchon. P.8/9

South East of Brazil, concerned once again by deadly floods.

In Petrópolis in Brazil, new floods occurred. According to the local authorities, it rained the equivalent of a whole month of rain. These torrential rains were fatal to at least five people, only one month after diluvian rainfalls caused the death of 233 people. P.10/11

