

"J'attends l'amour !"

publié le 27/06/2023

Descriptif :

Dernière tache finale de l'année pour les 4[°]A en anglais qui promettent monts et merveilles à l'él(u)e de leurs cœurs dans des déclarations enflammées ! De superbes réalisations dont ils peuvent être fiers !

My darling

I used to like you like a friend but now

I truly love you.

Will you still comfort me when I'm 70?

Will you still cherish me when I'm 80?

My beloved,

Will you love me without judging me?

We will have new friends, but we will never break up.

I will deeply love you forever and a day.

You and Me

When I first set my eyes on you

I couldn't stop looking at you

I will be able to unhook the moon for you

When we are married, we will buy a big house

After our wedding we will have two children

We will have one dog and his name will be Toby

We will travel around the world

I will offer you a private rocket for go to Mars

I will give you many flowers

I will give you my heart

My Dear

When we are 18 years old,
We will go on holidays together.

In summer, we will sleep outside and look at the stars,
I will hug you until sunrise.
The next morning, we will go for a ride in the forest as Lovers.

As soon as we are 20 years old,
I will propose, and if you accept,
I will take you all over the world!

But now, I'm going to ask you:
Would you want to come to a date
with me?

Before you're going to answer,
I'm going to promise:
I will love you as long as I am alive,

Because you're the king of
my heart,
And the man of my life.

Your Love

For my Darling!
